

The executive committee oversees the annual review of the President. His performance review and salary recommendations (based on comparable data from similar nonprofits) are presented to the board in executive session.