Lisa Mendez is our Lead Editor for Discovery.

Dominic Smart helps churches, organizations and individuals with vision, strategy and personal leadership development after having spent 30 years in parish ministry. He is still regularly involved in preaching and conference speaking.

Emlyn Williams was on the staff of a church in Southampton, England. Before that he worked for Scripture Union for over 35 years in a variety of roles and places. Recently retired, he is continuing in a writing and speaking ministry, hopefully at a slower pace. He is married to 'Tricia (who also worked for SU) and they have two adult children.

Ben Green is married to Jess, and they live in Amington (Staffordshire), where he is a vicar and she is a doctor. When he isn’t vicaring, Ben is most likely to be found either mowing his lawn or writing computer software, but he also enjoys walking up (real) mountains, playing the piano and letting Jess plan their holidays.

Penelope Swithinbank and her husband, both Anglican clergy, lead retreats and pilgrimages in the UK and abroad. Although officially retired, she is a writer, blogger, speaker and Ignatian Spiritual Director, besides being a granny to six in her spare time. She likes to think of it all as ‘re-tyre-ment’.

Penny Boshoff delights in being a child of God, wife to Andrew and mother to Sam, Issy and Dan. They live in Kent, where Penny is a primary school teacher. Penny is currently President of Scripture Union Council.

Mark Ellis is married to Joanne, and they have three children. He has been involved in mission in Asia, as a minister in Scotland, and is now the director of the Christian Unions Ireland.

Peter Mead is one of the pastors at Trinity Chippenham and a mentor with Cor Deo. He teaches at Union School of Theology and at the European Leadership Forum. He has written several books including Pleased to Dwell and Lost in Wonder (both with Christian Focus). He is married to Melanie and they have six children.

Liz Pacey runs her local charity Knitwits group. She enjoys regular speaking engagements, talking about knitting, books, disgraceful old age. Or anything really...

David Bracewell On retirement, David Bracewell established ‘Zoe Ministry’ which aims to encourage church leaders in their task of building healthy churches. He has five grandchildren, three children and one wife. He continues to teach and preach as required and is the attentive owner of a Mazda sports car.
