

The executive committee oversees the annual review of the President. Performance review and salary recommendations (based on comparable data from similar nonprofits) are presented to the board in executive session.