She loves investing in her 13 grandchildren and spending time with her spunky great granddaughter.

RO WILLOUGHBY For many years Ro was an editor with Scripture Union. She is now a lay minister at St Chad's Woodseats, Sheffield, engaging with people of all ages. Recently, for the first time in decades, she's bought a new Bible, just for herself. She is so delighted with its fresh layout and reference material.

GETHIN RUSSELL-JONES Gethin is co-minister at Ararat Baptist Church, Cardiff and has served several churches over the last 32 years. Away from pastoring, he is married to Clare and they have four children and four lively grandsons. Gethin allocates the remaining hours to running slow marathons and meeting editorial deadlines.

She enjoys adventuring in the outdoors and sharing food as often as possible. She tries to be intentional about finding joy in the everyday and encouraging others in their faith.
